Activity Groups

Skylight Activity Groups are held in the community, in Skylight centres or online, in both metro and regional areas.

We hold a range of different groups, including:

- music
- art and craft groups
- cooking classes
- social groups
- outings in the community
- and lots more

These activity groups provide a flexible and supportive environment in which you can participate in various activities whilst socializing and meeting new people.

The program provides a place where you can build skills, develop friendships, be accepted and connect with the community.

They provide an opportunity for connection and engagement, relationship building, improvement of physical, mental and emotional wellbeing.

“Skylight offers excellent programs, encouraging my skill development. Skylight has opened up opportunities that have been life-changing.
